For making the sciences come alive,

And teaching us to appreciate nature's fascinations,

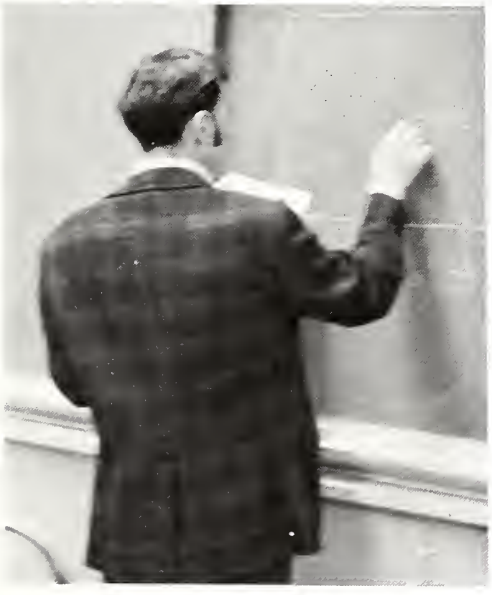

We, the staff of the Charlevoix High School Rayder Yearbook, dedicate this 1980 book to Mr. Peter Spieles.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

This year the Rayders had a tough season. It started out with our victories over Kalkaska, Benzie Central, and Petoskey. The next five games were a little tougher, like our memorable game against Gaylord which put a few members of our team on the bench. At long last we won our final game against Boyne City. It wasn't our best season, but we'll get 'em next year Rayders!

FROSH FOOTBALL

1979 was not a year for the Rayder football teams. The freshman team won one game against Rogers City and tied with Gaylord. The rest of their games were not quite as successful.

This year the freshmen were just starting out, but next year they'll have the knowledge they need to make a good j.v. team. Good luck next year!

CROSS COUNTRY

RAYDERS HAVE A GOOD SEASON, AND BUILD FOR NEXT YEAR

This year the Rayder cross country team had another great season. To keep up this good reputation, the team started their hard practices in the middle of August. The team ended the season with a 6-1 record in duel meets, second place in both Conference and Regionals, and twelth place in State. The team this year was young, including only one senior, which means another great season next year.

The football cheerleaders had a super time cheering on the football team. It was cold but that never slowed down the cheerleaders!

They went to camp last summer and learned some great routines to show us like, "In The Navy", and "We Are Family".

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1980 varsity basketball team struggled through a 9-10 regular season. They finished out the year with a 12-11 record after their loss to Roscommon in the first round of the Regional Tournement.

The Rayders captured a second straight District Championship by beating East Jordan, Boyne City and Onaway in that order.

When the final game was over and done, the students and fans were proud of the team despite much talk during the season.

Rah, Rah, Rah, Wow! What a fantastic season for the cheerleaders! They tried hard to get the spirit rolling again in our school, and they did a great job!!

The pep rallies were a super smash! The tricycle race, the banana eating contest with Mr. Bentley being the only one racing! Also the pies in the face that the basketball team received!! But the cheerleaders also did nice things for the guys such as decorating the bus, donuts in the morning and the goody bags!!

We compliment the cheerleaders on a job well done in cheering the basketball team on to a District Championship!!!

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

Months of running, jumping, straining, stretching, bumping, spiking, diving, saving, rolling, reaching, practicing, and numerous other painful exercises is what made the girls to the varsity volleyball team as good as they were this year.

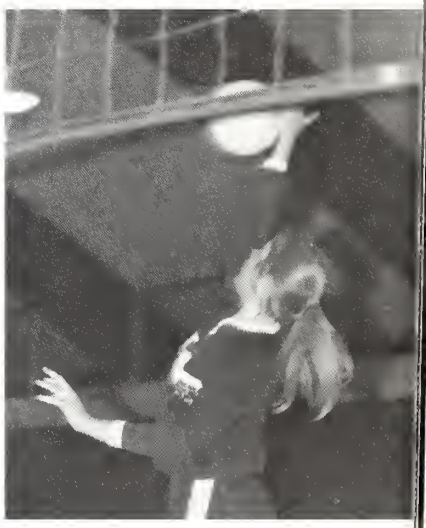

Their record for the season was impressive and they were able to make it to Regionals.

Nice job girls!

PEP ASSEMBLIES . . .

Friday has finally arrived and everyone is anxiously waiting for the bell to ring to excuse the students to the pep rally. Kids cram through their classroom doors to get to their lockers and to the gym. Everyone joins in singing the fight song, the announcements are given afterwards, and then the cheerleaders do their skits.

The competition yell begins as the three chosen teachers pose as judges. When the winning class is announced, those who didn't win (usually the Juniors) voice their objections.

Finally everyone sings the school song and the assembly is over.

FALL HOMECOMING

Fall Homecoming started when the senior class elected five candidates for Homecoming Queen; Tammy Helms, Kim Mitchell, Lori Niswander, Karen Snizik, and Leslie Wood.

Although the classes started building their floats a week and a half before Homecoming, most of the work was done the night before the parade, as usual. The juniors were first with their float "Come Sail Away," followed by the sophomores with "We Are the Champions." The seniors came in third with "You Ain't Seen Nothing Yet," and the freshmen were fourth with "The Main Event."

After last year's Queen, Gayle Hansen, crowned Queen Tammy, the crowd went to the elementary school for the traditional Homecoming Dance. There was a great surprise for everyone, because the band never showed!

RAYDER MARCHING BAND

The Rayder Marching Band helped supply the spirit for each football game and pep assembly. It showed its spirit through hard work and long practices to perfect each show.

This year the band had a whole new start. There was a new drum major, flag corp captain, golden girl, rifle captain, and even a new band director! Under the direction of Mr. Mike Filkins, the band played for four home games, raffled off a new car, and marched the homecoming queen and her court to Kipke Field.

To end the year, the band performed an excellant show and marched off the field, proud to be a part of Charlevoix High School.

AUDITORY INVASIONS

After spending as much as five years under the musical direction of one particular man, many seniors found it somewhat difficult to adjust to the abilities of a new band director. It wasn't very easy for most of the sophomores or juniors either. Yet we all survived to tell about it, even Mr. Filkins!

This year the band did many activities such as solo and ensemble, Honors Band, concerts, band competitions, and so on. All were done with high efficiency. Top ratings became a daily happening. All in all, not a bad year.

CHOIR

The 1979-80 choir did a good job this year, despite some of the tenor comedy that was refreshing as well as humorous. Although the altos at times had their problems of where to sit and when to start singing, the basses and sopranos stayed pretty much under control. On the whole the choir had a very successful year.

THE EXPERTS: PROBLEMS AND SOLUTIONS

It's not easy to become experts on foreign trade policy in a few short months. "What's a fourth world country?" But this was the task before the CHS debate team.

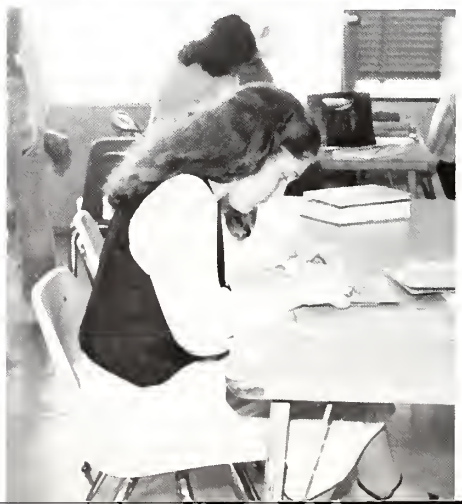

This task was not an easy one. Evidence had to be collected and filed. This was an accomplishment in itself as the team surpassed all precedents and compiled eight boxes. But the complications began. There were conflicting schedules and fears that the soothing supply of Halls Menthalyptus Cough Drops would run out. The problems didn't stop there however. Due to a basketball (or was it a parachuting) accident, the first negative ended up on crutches. This calamity proved to be contagious as the official time keeper became "crippled," too.

The "experts" were able to make something out of their season. Despite the difficulties, they qualified for quarter-finals and brought home a state trophy. In addition, they could have solved all of the nation's problems if they had only been asked.

A TRADITION BROKEN . . .

" . . . without our traditions, our lives would be as shaky as a fiddler on the roof!" But the CHS Speech Team did exactly that. They broke all traditions when they captured the C-D State Championship with their production "Fiddler on the Roof." The company numbering 45, took an unprecedented total of 17 awards. It was the first time Charlevoix took the Drama Championship.

The season held many memories for the team. Their surprise victory at Districts, serenading WALLI'S with "Sabbath Prayer" at two in the morning, and the trip to State Finals will always be remembered. But along with those happy memories are some unpleasant ones. Some members of the team will hesitantly recall ripped costumes, and wearing "diapers." Others won't forget the long rehearsals and getting up at two in the morning.

But all in all, it was worth it. The trophy proves that. And the team fulfilled their motto of "Fiddlin' for First!"

1980 WINTER HOMECOMING

The fifth annual Winter Homecoming was ushered in on Friday, Feb. 22.

Queen Brenda Klooster and King Kurt Williams reigned over their court of Colleen Mol and Mike Chappuies; Marie Buday and Nick Anderson; Mary Egler and John Fiedorek; and Shari Barnes and John Bradley.

All week there were activities involving the students in preparation for Friday's big event. This year the hall decorations took the place of the usual snow sculptures because of the lack of snow. The sophomores won the $25 first place with their Mickey Mouse character decorations. The seniors' fifties act and the sophomores' rendition of "The Mr. Rayder Show" tied for first in the class skits. The juniors won Spirit Week once more.

That evening the Rayders fought valiantly but lost the game to St. Ignace. The Homecoming dance was held Friday after the game in the Charlevoix High School study hall. It was a perfect ending to Charlevoix's Homecoming funtivities.

CAMPUS LIFE

Throughout the years of Charlevoix Campus Life, the students and staff have shared many fun-filled experiences. The meetings are held not only for goofing-off but for very serious discussion pertaining to religion and what goes on in everyday life.

Aside from all the weekly meetings and monthly rollerskating parties, students can go on trips such as Florida, Colorado, and skitzo, towards the end of the year. Another traditional part of Campus Life in the annual Sweetheart Pagent. This year's candidate was Karen L. Taylor. By working in the pagent students earned points toward the trip or activity of their choice.

SENIORS

SENIORS STEP INTO THE FUTURE

The last year of high school is a year of mixed emotions. Many of the memories are bittersweet.

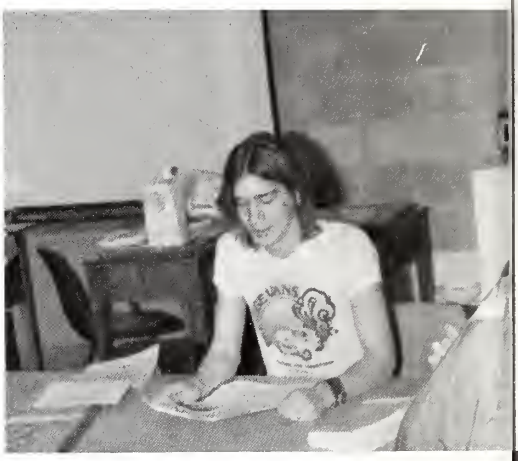

Our freshman year left us with memories. We remember the butterflies (or were they bats?) in our stomach when we first approached the massive and mighty CHS. And the first pep assembly of that year found us in the spotlight — only it wasn't exactly fun ... As freshman, we were required to take Gym. Those lockerrooms certainly hold memories, too! But probably Fall Homecoming gave us the happiest memory. Our "Coke" float took second place!!

After such a victory, our sophomore year was a let-down. Our float, although it was far-out, came in last. Ordering class rings did provide some excitement. But soon, that excitement was lost in a muddle of biology tests, our first term papers, typing assignments, and magazine sales.

As Juniors, our memories grew. We had senior-itis a whole year early! We sat (actually, slept) through History. And in May, the memories became, well, almost romantic ... our first Prom. Later that month, our memories became itchy.

And our senior year, although recent, has memories, too. We can remember having Government and not having English. We remember our many victories in the competition yell. The hassles of being a senior — senior pictures, caps and gowns — add excitement. We can think of our Fall Homecoming Dance when the band didn't show up — and how we almost went to court!!

Our last year is a bittersweet year. The memories are sweet, but the future can be bitter. We'll be leaving these familiar halls, cherished friends. We're headed for a new life, and we don't know what the future holds.

Class officers: D. Campbell, secretary; D. Resch, treasurer; T. Helms, vice-president; A. Elzinga, president.

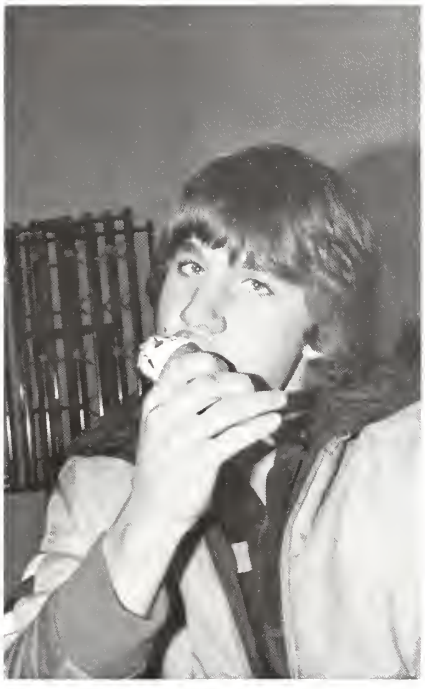

Kumiko Yamazaki, from Japan, joined us in 1980. She's a senior, glad to have her!

JUNIORS – ANOTHER STEP

Who are the Juniors? We'll tell you. We are the class that took first place for the float and Spirit Week for the 1979 Fall Homecoming. We are the rowdy class of '81' who overpowers the pep assemblies.

Who are we? We are the juniors, the class of '81.

SUPER SOPHOMORE SPIRIT

After coming back from summer vacation, we showed that this sophomore class was the best! During Fall Homecoming competitions, we placed second with "We are the Champions" and second in both the Spirit Week and class skit. This year we ordered our class rings and participated in many fund-raising activities such as bake sales and magazine sales. We showed CHS that we're moving up in the world with our school spirit. Beware, because we'll be back next year to show you that "We are the Champions!"

FRESHMEN

THE INNOCENT FRESHMEN

Armed with high hopes and great expections, the freshmen entered the land of the unknown . . . High School. They made their way through the year, stumbling through the halls, stumbling around at dances and stumbling through Homecoming with fourth place for their float. But they made it through the year, and now they will become mighty sophomores!

WHEW! WE MADE IT!!

Always this time of year establishes a feeling of bewilderment in the hearts of our senior members. Confusion, excitement, pandemonium, and a certain amount of apprehension can be seen clearly in the eyes of those so close to being thrust into their unpredictable futures.

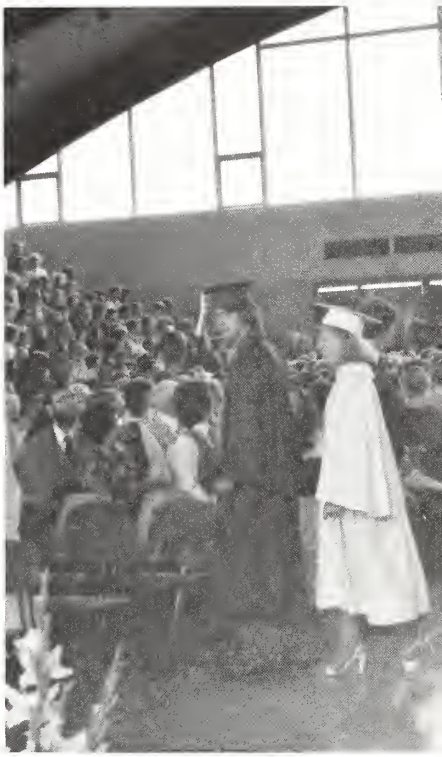

After years of building relationships with people who, at times, are closer than our own families, we must now turn and walk away. But our memories will sheild us from distress. And this time when we fall, we'll have new friends to help us up and brush us off.

Still, no matter how many new friends, no matter where the road leads us, the special people, the glorious memories, and the neverending spirit of CHS will live in our hearts forever. And it is these things which we will always be thankful for.

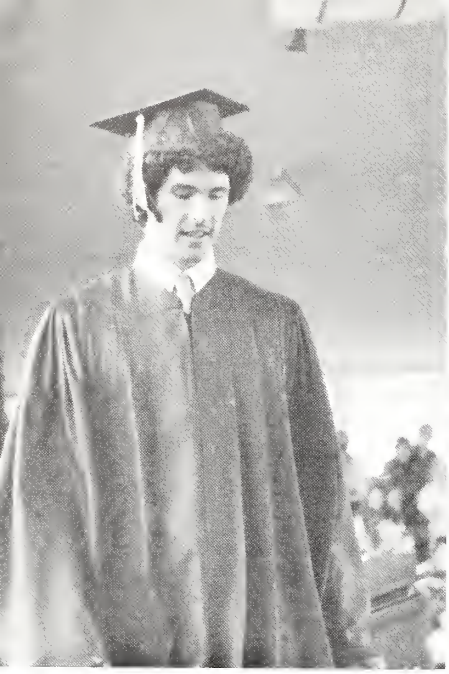

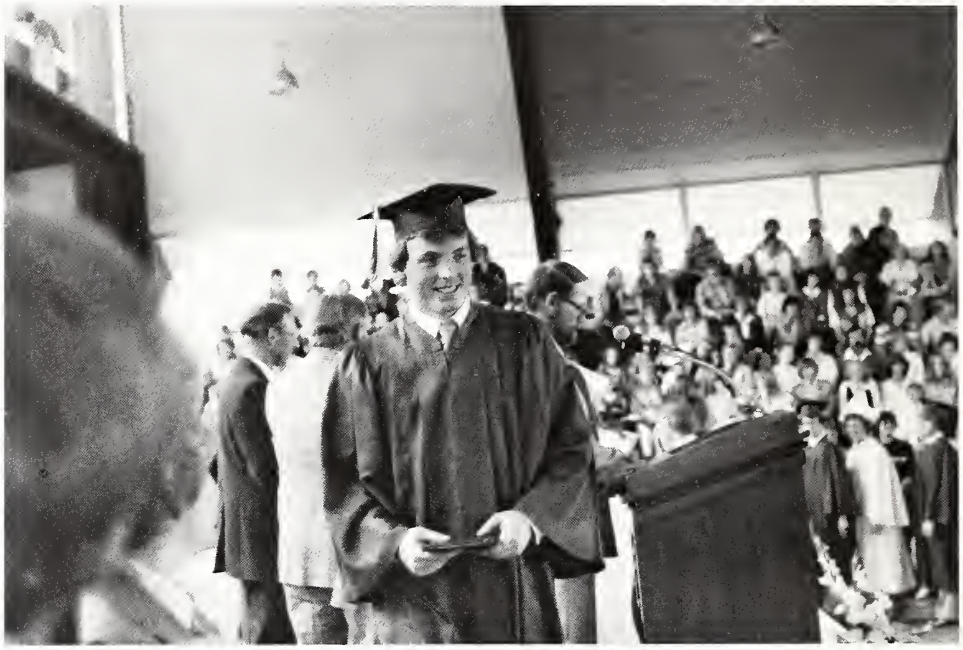

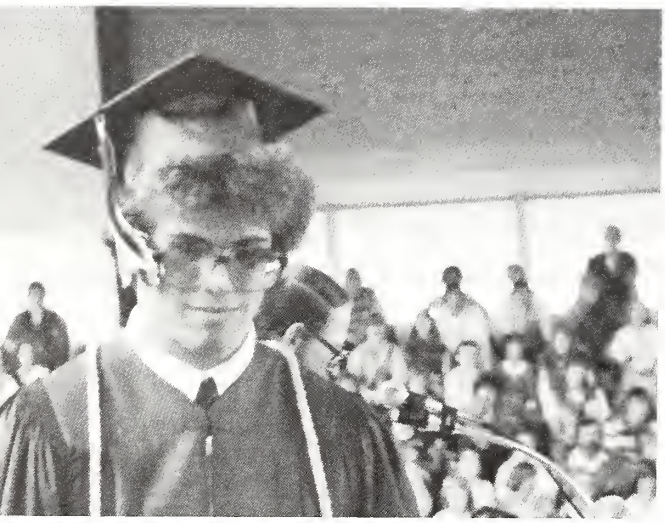

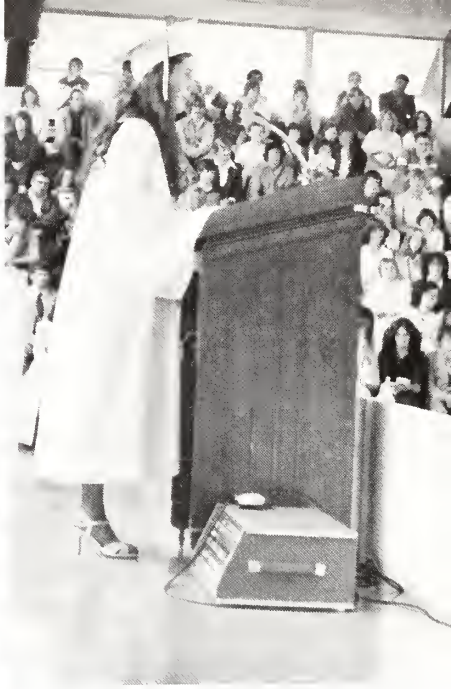

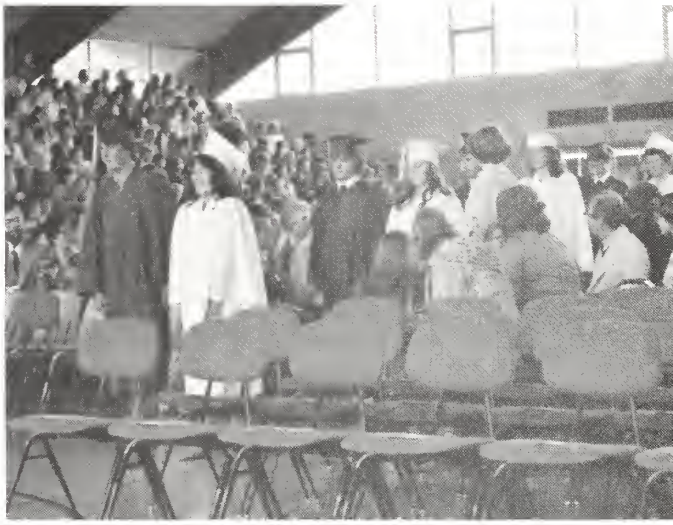

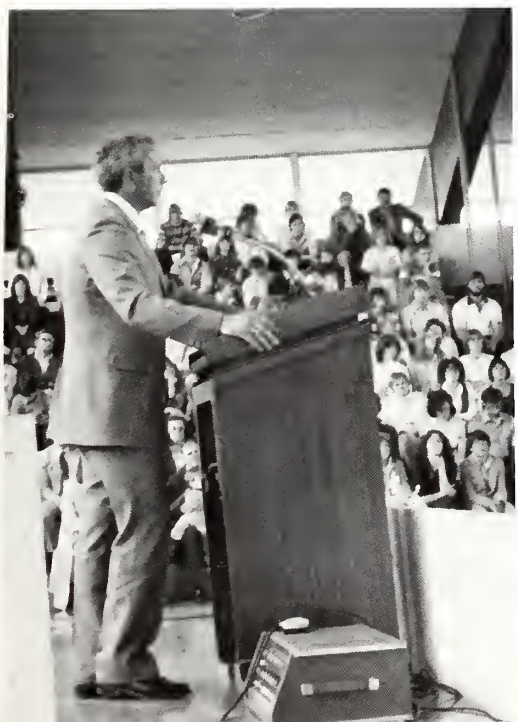

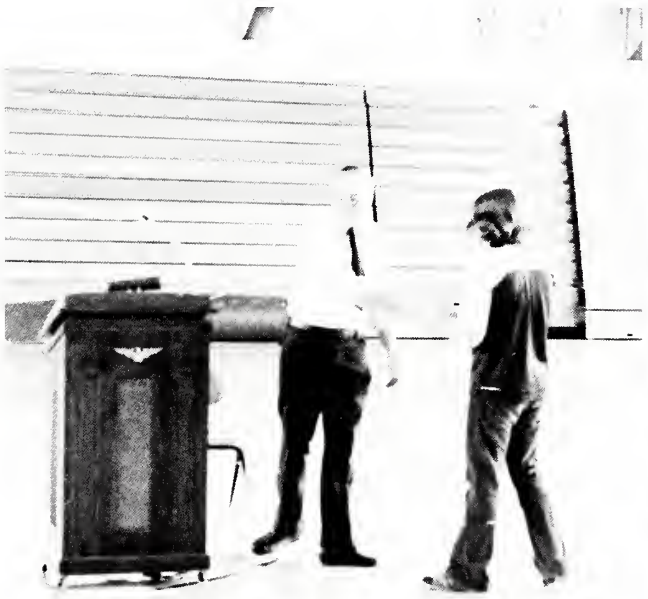

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

THE BEST OF 1980

Each year special awards are given out to students who have worked hard and deserve recognition. Some of the awards are serious, some humorous and are very important to many students. The number of awards given seems to increase each year, which proves that CHS is not only number one in sports, but also academics!!!

CRE

TALE OF THE TALENTED

The little northern town of Charlevoix,
Its forensics team was great.
And the team had a goal-
To be the best in the state.

They were the best team last year,
But they wanted to do it again,
The big and silver trophy
They wanted home with them.

So they set out to win their goal,
This mighty forensic team.
They reached for the highest star and tried to fulfill their dream.

They did serious readings and humorous readings,
And some of them told stories.
A few were in radio broadcasting,
While others delivered oratories.

They had the talent;
Now all they had to do was try.
Some made audiences laugh,
And others made them cry.

They worked until March,
time for the season to begin.
This forensic team, at every tournament,
chalked up trophies and another win.

Now it was time for Districts,
A most important meet;
But Charlevoix was the team
That Gaylord couldn't beat.

They moved into Regionals.
The competition was keen
For Ithaca wanted the trophy,
And they were tough and mean.

Charlevoix was victorious
But both went onto State.
They all worked diligently,
And May 3 was the date.

The northern forensic team won;
They beat Ithaca.
The trophy and a storyteller,
Charlevoix's the best! Hurrah!

After such a spectacular win,
The team deserved a rest.
So they came home to Charlevoix,
The place they like the best.

STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

The warm, spring evening of May 3, 1980, was the perfect setting for the Junior-Senior Prom. The soft lights romantically lit the Hilton Shanty Creek as the guests arrived. Nobody will forget know nicely all the young couples looked and how they fussed with their ties and figited with their dresses and combed their hair. Everybody remembers the sore feet they got from dancing to the lively music supplied by "Montage," a band from Lansing. The beautifully arranged refreshments supplied by Shanty Creek completed the scene that no one will ever forget.

SOARING SPIRITS

RUN, JUMP, SPRINT

This year's track team has not done as well as they have in the past. Between the athlete's foot and the sweaty socks, Coach Evans prayed for more victories, though he never received what he was hoping for. Unfortunately, the team had more losses than wins.

The 1980 team, however, is not going to let this get them down, for their Rayder spirit is at an all time high. According to the team, they're going to try for State finals in '81. Good luck!

RUN LIKE THE WIND

Miles of long enduring ground, and hard work are what gave CHS a great track team. In spite of the snowy and rainy days, the girls kept up their willpower. The number of runners and excellent coaching brought forth more Rayder Spirit.

The team ended the season with personal goals reached. Tanya Ford went to State competition, while other members like Marie, Vicki, Pam, Sally, Lisa, and Mary Beth had a fantastic season.

BASEBALL

The 1980 baseball team swung through their best year ever. This year's team won the first baseball conference championship since the team was added to the CHS sports program three years ago. This year's seniors will be able to look back on a very successful season in 1980. Underclassmen can look to the future with a lot of potential and some great experiences under their belts. Coach Pete Spieles can look to the future with great anticipation.

GIRLS SNEAK UP ON SEASON

The 1980 girls' softball team got off to a slow start this season but once underway, the girls really moved well. This was their second season and the young team improved with experience.

Outstanding players this year were infielders Teresa Noirot and Colleen LaBlance; outfielder Margo Smith; pitchers Mel Kerridge and Melinda Klooster. The highest batting average was held by Melinda Klooster.

The girls ran into a little trouble with the guys sharing the bus, but all in all everyone had a great time and a great season with few injuries.
